

We are an open, loving, and inclusive community that supports thinking creatively and living a deeply spiritual life.

Living Out Loud!
Playing with Paradox
Week of October 8, 2023
Getting Comfortable with Discomfort

In these challenging moments of dissonance, we need to stay curious and resist choosing comfort over courage. It's brave to invite new information to the table, to sit with it, and hear it out. It's also rare these days.

October 8th Getting

Comfortable with Discomfort

As we continue to play in paradox, it is imperative that we look at the polarities that exist in our lives. Attachment to one perspective or another often causes suffering. We must be willing to remain open to understanding alternative perspectives and then find a Third Way that encompasses the positive benefits of all aspects of a seeming polarity.

THIS SERVICE IS IN-PERSON (and online) AT THE

While we're waiting...

...waiting for Divine timing to bring us our own special place and to relocate

Rev Joe and his family, let's create the social connection that we are all so hungry for.
YOU can help.

Want to lead a hike, organize a game night, plan a picnic?

Dream up what you would like to do and let us know. We'll put it on the Center's calendar and advertise it in the newsletter and on our Facebook page.

We're also creating a committee to coordinate social events - we'd love your help. Reply to this email to join it.

The Social Gathering above is the first - Now what's next?!

Bylaws Revision

We will be forming a short-term committee to refine and update our Center's bylaws. We would love for you to lend your voice.
