2025 Rising Higher, Growing Deeper
December: Shedding Our Skin
Week of December 14th
From Crackly to Supple

As my dead dry skin self peels away,
I embrace my rich, soft, and supple self.

December 14th
From Crackly to Supple

THIS CELEBRATION IS IN-PERSON (and online) AT THE MASONIC LODGE.
PLEASE SEE DETAILS BELOW.

Like lotioning our skin when it gets dry to keep it soft and supple, our lives also need moisture and attention to keep them healthy and vibrant. By welcoming evolution and growth, we nurture ourselves to be the very best we can be. This is one of the ways we make a positive contribution to life.

Our Beloved Julie Smith

Several of us attended the celebration of life for our dearest friend, Julie, on December 6th in Hurricane. It was beautiful to meet family and friends and hear stories from our beloved Charles, delightful daughter Dascha, and charming grandsons, John and Carl. It was so sweet to hear about her powerful life starting in war torn Germany to her journey in the U.S. We listened to tales about her career and, most impactfully, her love and compassion for her family, friends and communities and her perspectives about life itself.

If you are interested in continuing to celebrate Julie Smith, you are invited to support her favorite charitable non-profits: Center for Spiritual Living St George (donation information below) and/or Women for Women International www.womenforwomen.org.

Here is a song and poem that Charles shared with us in Julie's honor.

Immortality, by Clare Harner

Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow;
I am the diamond glints on the snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain;
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there; I did not die.
