THE DIGNITY INDEX

Ease Divisions. Prevent Violence. Solve Problems.

8

"Each one of us is born with inherent worth, so we treat everyone with dignity—no matter what."

7

"We fully engage with the other side, discussing even values and interests we don't share, open to admitting mistakes or changing our minds."

6

"We always talk to the other side, searching for the values and interests we share."

5

"The other side has a right to be here and a right to be heard. It's their country too."

4

"We're better than those people. They don't really belong. They're not one of us."

3

"We're the good people and they're the bad people. It's us vs. them."

2

"Those people are evil. They're going to ruin our country if we let them. It's us or them."

1

"They're not even human. It's our moral duty to destroy them before they destroy us."

Building Skills for Dignified Disagreement

Honoring someone's dignity can be difficult, especially when situations get heated. Follow these steps when stress rises – and join the movement of Americans easing divisions, preventing violence, and solving problems by choosing dignity over contempt.

Be curious, not furious

When there is a disagreement, approach it with curiosity, using language that invites dialogue.

Regulate then debate

When you start to get upset, pause and take a breath before speaking.

Listen to hear, not to respond

Really listen to the other person and consider summarizing briefly what you heard.

Challenge ideas, don't attack people

Speak your truth but do it with dignity.

Acknowledge knowledge

When someone else makes a logical or interesting point, acknowledge their point.

Build up rather than tear down

Advocate, explain, and build up your idea rather than just attacking others' ideas and/or dehumanizing people.

Take the Dignity Pledge:

As an American who knows and loves my country, I am convinced there is no America without democracy, no democracy without healthy debate, and no healthy debate without dignity; therefore, I pledge to do more to treat others with dignity, not contempt.
