Living Out Loud!
The Power of Vulnerability
Letting Go and Letting In
Week of April 16, 2023

When we were children, we used to think that when we were grown up we would no longer be vulnerable. But to grow up is to accept vulnerability. To be alive is to be vulnerable.

April 16th Guest Speaker
Rev. Dr. Raymont Anderson

Letting Go and Letting In

The more we can make friends with all the parts of us, the more we can begin to explore our ability to bring those aspects of ourselves to life in expansive ways. The more we are able to do this for ourselves, the greater our ability will be to create space for others to do the same.

NEW GUEST SPEAKER: Rev. Dr. Raymont Anderson is an ordained Centers for Spiritual Living minister and serves as the founding minister and the Spiritual Director of The Center for Spiritually Integrated Arts which is an affiliated Centers for Spiritual Living Teaching Center. He brings his years of being an artist, performer, educator, and lover of comics and film to all areas of his life and his ministry. He is a frequently sought-after guest minister/speaker at various Centers for Spiritual Living as well as Unity churches. In addition to his work in New Thought and, specifically, CSL, he teaches workshops related to American Sign language, Radical Self-Care, and Living with Purpose. He is also a professional visual artist, performing artist, author, and former public school teacher, college professor, and American Sign Language interpreter. When he is not teaching, speaking, writing, creating, etc., he spends time with family, which includes harassing and loving up his amazing grandkids.
